Frank Moran is Much Opposed to Referees Who Are Butchers; He Says They Always Give Him Worst of Counting: Other Instances of Referees Who Let Seconds Intervene Between Their Counts.

weight. "A little while back I fought Charlie "A little while back I fought Charlie "A little while back I fought Charle White in Chatannooga—and they rin in a butcher to referee," recited Moran. They told me down there he was a great ring expert. And I fell for it. "In the first round I caught White with a right hook—and down he went. That was the signal for that butcher to begin the count. Did he do it? Did he? He did not! He was more surprised ever that knockout than White was himself.

He Didn't Count.

"In a dured sort of way that butcher looked at White, then out into the crowd, then at White's manager and finally at me. Then it was that I woke up to the fact that the referon wasn't doing any counting. I lumped over at him.

"Hey! What's wrong with you? Count—darn you—count. I yelled at him and I belted him one in the ribs to get him started. He was counting awfully slow, it seemed to me and I stood alongside him, buyncing a few off lis ribs and yelling at him to Keep on counting."

At the count of seven—which actually was about 15 seconds after I knocked down White—the Chicago boy set up. I knocked Whits down again with a left hook later on in the fight, but the best I got out of it was a few.

het the best I got out of it was a draw.

"Butchers are all right in their place—but not in a prize ring."

Moran claims 12 knockout victories in his 45 fights. He never has been knocked down or out, and is lurking in Gotham new in the hope of sand-bagging Freddle Welsh, Benny Leonard of Johnny Dundes.

Long Count for K. O. Brown.
Fear of the law of Michigan caused a referee to favor George ("knockout") Brown with a long count some years ago.

Brown with a long count some years ago.

Brown and Edie McCloorty met in Benton Harbor, in a ball park, on a Fourth of July afternoon. The shoriff of the county, after reductantly consenting to the staging of the scrap, warnest the promoter that if it was promoter that if it was promoted that it is not promoted that

And then the promoter of the fight, who also acted as referee, found himself placed in a peculiar position. His ring duty was to count out Brown, yet, if he performed that chore he ran the chance of being heaved into the has-

of the sun reflected from a sliny revolver.

Forced to choose between two evila possible arrest or possible shooting—the referee chose the lesser.

"One," he tolled off. Then he paused two seconds, "Two!" he chanted and then another pause, while his eyes shaded with his hands searched the crowd, fearful of finding the guardian of the Michiganders laws.

"Three," And then after a lapse of two or three seconds came "fort!"

WHEN Frank Chance began W gathering an all-star team for Los Angeles it was a foregone conclusion that there would be some trouble over the Coast league salary limit of $4500. And now it has come. An effort is now being made to boost the limit to $5000 or $5250. And the whole trouble can be laid at the door of Chance, whose idea of baseball management is to grab an expensive team of star players. It is hardly a fair test of managerial ability for, with unlimited money, even a schoolboy can "manage" a "KID" WILLIAMS and Johnny Ertle have signed for a six-round no decision bout in Philadelphia some time in May. And they have billed it for the "bantamweight championship"! It's a darn pity some of these champions can't find a state with a limit of four rounds on bouts, so they won't have to overexert themselves.

TIGERS pulled the game with the White Sox out of the fire in the last of the ninth on Thursday. With the score I to 0 in favor of the Sox, one out and a runner on second, Veach grabbed his third hit of the day, putting the teams on an even basis. Harper then went out and it looked like extra innings but Heilman drove the ball into the left field bleachers for two bases, scoring Veach and winning the game for

FOR the first time this season, the rule which puts out a base runner who is touched by a coach, was brought into action in the big leagues on Thursday. Johnson, of the Pirates, reached third base in the game with the Browns and was touched as he rounded the hot corner by a coach. Umpire Quigley promptly called him out.
